the VP offices in Frenzlau at a daily rate of between 40 and 50. They made up only part of the VP Verband, and only about 25 percent of the strength. Most of them were deemed unreliable or were completing their third year of active service. They were marched by groups of 10 to 15 each commanded by an officer to receive documentation at the district registration administrations. They turned in their uniforms, partly to units and partly to the district registration administrations. A numb the numerous applications for discharge filed had not been complied we since these VFs refused to do any duty from 10 to 23 July, they creat terrible confusion. About 100 officers and enlisted men were excluded the Volkspolized during a big roll call to remedy the discharge psych the A Command finnou, which numbered about 1,300 men, the 2d A Comman Prenzlau, which numbered about 1,700 men, and the 3d A Command Prenzlau, which numbered about 1,700 men, and the 3d A Comman Prenzlau included Bornholmer Bruecke, Schoenholz and Lichtenberg-Koen Ost.
